

The plan of the association for the next 5 years is as follows:

- 1 Membership in the European Association of Nutritionists and Dietitians and promoting the values of international professional associations of nutritionists-dietitians.
- 2) will organize, alone or in association with other organizations, expert meetings, consultations, seminars, symposiums, workshops and other forms of education.
- 3) The plan is to publish short educational films, brochures and other publications on the issues defined in Article 3.
- 4) The plan is to cooperate with competent ministries and other state bodies, universities, schools, health institutions, etc., preschool institutions, professional associations and other organizations in the country and abroad, in order to achieve the goals defined in Article 3.
- 5) Will cooperate with competent administrative bodies, professional institutions and other relevant professional associations in drafting regulations in the field of food quality and health safety, and gives an opinion on said regulations
- 6) They will cooperate with competent administrative bodies, professional institutions and other relevant professional associations in the development of national programs for the control and improvement of the nutrition of the population and special population groups
- 7) They will cooperate with educational institutions where future experts are trained who will be engaged in practice and science in accordance with modern achievements in the field of food and nutrition
- 8) It will promote the scientific and research work of its members
- 9) will work to educate all population groups about the importance of proper nutrition and the preservation and improvement of health
- 10) Will work on the education of health workers, associates and other professions, who apply knowledge in the field of dietetics, food and nutrition within their professional competences
- 11) It will promote and support domestic and international cooperation of experts in the field of food, nutrition, dietetics and related fields
- 12) will actively work on improving the profession, in all fields that are important for the work of the profession